Neptune to Unveil a Secret at METS

DMS Holland, a company specializing in the field of roll damping, will be revealing Neptune's secret during this years METS. DMS Holland, winner of the Shell LiveWIRE Rising Star Award for the most innovative product for small- and medium-sized businesses in the Netherlands as announced on October 1st, continue to strive for near perfect balance; a stable business, 'buoyant' on innovation. One focused on innovation and improvement. The results of this focus will be made public in November during METS. The secret of Neptune will be revealed. Shedding some light on this, Arnold van Aken (Engineering) commented: "We have achieved notable product advancements: higher reliability, simplifications and now extremely compact. Installation of our stabilization systems is therefore much easier."
